

INTERESTED IN A CAREER IN JOURNALISM?

The Regional Youth Journalism Fellowship allows the successful applicant to learn and earn on the job right here in Shepparton ...

The Fellowship sees another local Goulburn Valley young person paid to learn and build their skills in the Shepparton News newsroom.

The full time 6-month placement is undertaken with the invaluable support and mentorship of Melbourne Press Club journalists to provide guidance and advice.

The successful applicant can commence this year or at the beginning of 2026

“The Regional Youth Journalism Fellowship has been the most rewarding experience. It’s given me real-world newsroom experience, the chance to report on meaningful local stories, and the confidence to pursue journalism long-term. From meeting the Premier to covering community issues, every day has offered something new and it all started with taking a chance on this opportunity.” - Pip Turton, 2025 Fellow
